In 1880 the employes in the lumber and sawmills on the Pacific coast received $1,538,429 in wages. In 1890 they received $6,562,009

The product of these mills in the meantime grew from 642,142,000 to 1,946,168,000 feet of sawed lumber. This is the great interest threatened by Democratic free lumber.

CAN'T SAY, DONTCHERKNOW.

St. Louis Republic, (Dem.)—If being a Republican is not sufficient cause for dismissal, what were we doing all this whooping and hallooing to get Harrison dismissed for, when the only objection to him was that he was very much of a Republican?

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.—Rotation in office means the infusion of new blood to prevent stagnation and decay, and at the same time to discourage the pernicious habit of seeking office as a business when there are so many better methods of earning a living and contributing to the welfare of society. The Civil Service reformers mean well, but their plans and purposes are seriously wanting in point of practical utility and Mr. Cleveland has done well to turn his back upon them in such a positive and significant manner.

GOLDEN PERIOD.

Freeport (Ill.) Journal.—In 1849, under Democratic low Tariff, referred to by Vice-President Stevenson and Hon. William M. Springer as the "golden period" in the political history of this country, the editor of this paper, younger in years and in experience than he is now, was living upon a farm in Stephenson county, and well remembers that his father, in the early spring of that year, went to market with a bushel basket full of fresh eggs, which were sold to O. H. Wright, a merchant in Freeport, for three cents per dozen in "store trade" and that for the eggs so sold calico was purchased at fifteen cents per yard. There are a great many old settlers in Stephenson county who remember that "golden period" of low Tariff and Democratic government as well as it is remembered by the editor of this paper. But times have changed since then. An exchange says that a Maine farmer went shopping the other day with twenty-five dozen eggs and obtained in exchange the following list of articles, which he took home: One-half barrel of flour, a bushel of meal, a pound of tea, a pound of coffee, five pounds of sugar, a pound of soda, a gallon of kerosene oil, a bar of soap, a gallon of molasses, a quarter pound of tobacco, half a gallon of vinegar, a package of mixed spices and a calico dress pattern. It might have been expected that a man would forget something, and he did. His wife scolded him for not getting a bag of salt.

Wonder if Mr. Roach, the new Democratic United States Senator from North Dakota, will be permitted to retain his seat in view of the exposure of his past record? Twelve or fifteen years ago Roach was Cashier of the Citizens' National Bank of Washington. He was found to be a defaulter to the extent of over $60,000. It is admitted that he used the bank's funds to speculate with in stocks. The bank recovered $25,000 from his bondsmen and about $16,000 from Roach direct, leaving a deficit due the bank of over $20,000. This has never been paid, although for some reason Roach was not indicted and was permitted to leave town unmolested. Probably some powerful political or personal influence was brought to bear on the bank Directors to induce them not to prosecute Roach. He went to North Dakota and now returns with a Democratic commission as United States Senator. There does not seem to be any dispute as to the main facts of the case. Mr. Roach practically admits his guilt, but claims that the bank has been paid in full the amount of his shortage. Even if that be true it does not improve the case much. Mr. Roach's politics has nothing to do with the matter. It seems to me that the honor of the Senate is involved and that Mr. Roach should be compelled to clear up his record or get out. The Senate has full authority to act, as under the Constitution it is the sole judge of the election and qualifications of its own members.

If Mr. Roach were at all sensitive he would resign at once, as he cannot hope to be received on terms of equality by his colleagues in view of his record. In fact he will be a marked man and will be shunned by Democrats as well as Republicans. It is difficult to conceive of a more trying situation for any one to be placed in. Ninety-nine men out of a hundred would not have the nerve to face it. Roach may prove to be the hundredth man, and that event the Senate should take cognizance of the case for the sake of its own reputation.

THE VILLAGE STATESMAN.

Under a creaking grocery sign
The village statesman sits;
A man of mighty jaw is he,
And precious little wits.
We whittles on an empty box
And chews his quid and spits.

Railroads, bonds and currency—
From this to that he flits;
Denounces blunders of finance
And gives John Sherman fits;
While in a backyard over the way
His wife the stovewood splits.

To the Methodists of Kentucky.

The Woman's Parsonage and Home Mission Society of the M. E. Church, South, has projected a school in the mountains of Kentucky for the better training of the girls and boys of that destitute region. It is proposed to put $10,000 in the buildings. Manchester, Clay county, will raise $5,000 of this and give the grounds. We want, and want it within sixty days, the sum of $5,000, so that we may begin the work in the spring. No sum promised will be called for until the $10,000 has been pledged. Do not understand that $10,000 is all we shall call for. After the buildings are finished we shall need other funds for furnishing, paying the teachers, etc. But our first call is for $5,000, which, with the $5,000 from Manchester, will build the house.

This is a woman's movement, originated by our sainted Miss Sue Bennett. Let no Methodist in the state pass this call unheeded. Send your name and state the amount you are willing to give to one of the undersigned, and we will send you note to sign. Miss Belle Bennett, Richmond, Ky., Mrs. George P. Duncan, Danville, Ky., or Mrs. Clara M. Poynter, Shelbyville, Ky.

THE BOSS BORROWER.

He Obtained Over a Million and a Half Without Any Security.

"The man who can start in life on nothing and borrow a million and a half without security is a beauty," said Joe Campbell to a St. Louis Globe-Democrat man. "Yet I know a man that did that identical thing. In fact he was an uncle of mine, my mother's brother-in-law. He was a German and lived all his life in Berlin. He was a very suave, smooth gentleman, knew everybody worth knowing, hobnobbed with the nobles of Emperor William's court and loved to live. He was engaged in living; that was his entire occupation in life, and he was one of the greatest artists in Europe. Whenever he thought himself on the wane among those who looked upon him as an idol he painted a picture, put it on exhibition, had all Europe talking about it, and then he did nothing for a couple of years. Some years ago the art fever broke out in a most malignant form among the wealthier Germans of Cincinnati. They meant to have the best of modern painters do a lot of work for them. My distinguished relative's name was well known among them and he was invited to Cincinnati. He came over and for a couple of months he was a lion. He was feted and entertained most royally. He submitted some ideas for paintings, and the people who brought him over went crazy over his plans. Finally he induced them to advance him $75,000 on the work, and he returned to Germany to do his painting. He died about a year after, and when the Cincinnatians started to look up the paintings they found nothing but the original sketches. He hadn't touched them since the day he first submitted them in Cincinnati. That started an investigation, and it was found that he had borrowed in the course of his career something over $1,500,000. He hadn't a dollar's worth of security, and had simply devoted his time and talents to the pursuit of living."

Croup at Plainfield, N. J.

My boy, five years of age, was recently taken with a severe attack of croup and I thought sure that I would lose him. I had seen Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised and concluded to try it, and am happy to say that after two doses he was relieved and slept till morning. He had another attack the next night; I gave the same remedy and a prompt cure was effected. I feel that I cannot praise this remedy too highly. L. B. MULFORD,
No. 38 Park avenue, Plainfield, N. J.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy will not only cure croup, but will prevent it. If freely given as soon as the child becomes hoarse, or even after the croupy cough appears, it will prevent the attack. Several doses are usually required. There is no danger in giving it freely, as it contains nothing injurious. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Power & Reynolds, druggists

Woman's Fickleness.

The Owensboro Messenger tells another tale of a woman's fickleness. It says: John Collins, who lived near Curdsville, is mourning a woman's fickleness. He was engaged to be married to Annie Smith, who lives on Pup creek, and the wedding day was set for last Thursday. He had built a nice little house at Curdsville and had it already furnished. He came to Owensboro to get the license, and when he arrived here he was met by a messenger from the young woman, who bore the news that she had changed her mind and did not want to see him. He accepted the situation calmly, telephoned back to Curdsville to the livery stable keeper to send to Owensboro for his horse and buggy and started at once for Kansas City. He is said to be an honest and industrious young fellow and the girl missed a good catch.

THE contest between Mr. CLEVELAND and the Democrats in the Senate with respect to the composition of the Senate committees is not one in which Republican Senators are called upon to take sides. The Republican party is resolutely opposed to the principles and policies of the Democracy, both as they are represented in Congresses and in the executive branch of the Government.

Cleveland and the Senate.

It is no business of Republican members of the Senate, says The New York Press, to aid the President in making war upon rebellious members of his own party or to aid Democratic Senators in fighting the President. The duty of the Republican party and its representatives everywhere is to oppose with the utmost energy and determination every Democratic measure that threatens American industry and prosperity at home and American interests abroad. If this duty is manfully fulfilled for the next four years, 1897 will witness the inauguration of a Republican President at Washington and the return of the Republican party to power in every part of the Federal Government.

No compromises with the enemy! No entangling alliances with any portion of Democracy, but a straightforward, courageous battle against Democratic Free-trade, Democratic degradation of the currency and Democratic surrender of American rights in any part of the world. This is the course marked out by honor and patriotism. It is the way to victory.

EXTRA SESSION.

Cleveland Will Convene Congress Early Next Fall.

The Statement Made Upon Authority Which is Beyond Question.

A Shortage of Fifty Million Dollars Discovered—That Enormous Amount Represents the Excess of Appropriations Over the Available Cash.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—An extra session of the Fifty-third congress will be called by the president early next fall. This statement is made upon authority which is beyond question. The necessity of financial legislation will be the chief and most potent reason for this action. The treasury is in absolute need of $50,000,000 more money than it has, in order to meet the demands which will be made upon it under the legislation of the the last congress.

In addition to this, in order to keep the supply of free gold above the hundred-million-dollar reserve, gold has been purchased. This is a fact not generally known. For every $100,000 or $1,000,000 offered to the United States by any bank or clearing-house in this country, an equal proportion of money now counted in the daily statements as a surplus must be paid out. To recoup this the daily receipts must be depended upon. These conditions only emphasize the imperative necessity of early legislation upon the silver question and kindred subjects.

The organization of the finance committee of the senate in the interest of the free silver element would, however, make an immediate extra session of congress inadvisable. It is evidently the hope of the administration to utilize the summer in working upon some of the free silver members of that committee.

The other great reason for calling congress together before next December is the feeling on the part of Mr. Cleveland and his political advisers that the democratic party must make at least some pretense of trying to carry into effect its pledges upon tariff revision.

Secretary Carlisle will spend a great deal of time this summer in preparing what will be known as the administration tariff bill, for submission to congress as soon as it is called together. Beside the measure prepared by E. Ellery Anderson and his associates of the Reform club of New York, other measures are likely to be sent to Secretary Carlisle from various commercial and political organizations. All of these measures will be treated merely as suggestions. Mr. Carlisle intends to prepare his own bill and to impress upon it the stamp of originality.

The consideration of a tariff bill is always and necessarily tedious, consuming a great deal of time in the revision of schedules and the discussion of minor details. Therefore, the president and Secretary Carlisle are agreed that it is desirable to bring their proposed tariff revision before congress at as early a date as possible in order that its consideration may have advanced to some degree before the regular session begins next December.

Killed by a Train.

RAHWAY, N. J., March 25.—A. B. Bird, a resident of East Orange and general agent for the Travelers Aceident Insurance Co., of Hartford, was struck and instantly killed at the Cherry street crossing of the Pennsylvania railroad Tuesday morning. Shortly after 10 o'clock Bird alighted from a train from Newark and tried to cross the track. The east bound train No. 27 was approaching and just as Mr. Bird stepped on the track he saw it. The train is a very fast one and although Mr. Bird jumped back to avoid it he was too late and was struck and instantly killed.

BLOUNT TALKS.

Why Our Envoy to Honolulu Evidently Has His Mind Made Up.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Just before sailing for Hawaii Monday, Commissioner Blount had this to say regarding the object of his trip:

"The public seems to have the idea that I am loaded to the guards with instructions, whereas the plain truth is that I have no instructions from President Cleveland or and one else. My mission is to investigate the whole question of annexation; to determine the sentiment of foreigners as well as of natives, and to conclude, as far as possible from facts, whether it would be advantageous to this country to annex the islands. My mind is free from any prejudice and I am prepared to give an impartial hearing to all sides.

"The cutter Rush will be at my disposal and in it I will visit the other islands, after completing my work at Honolulu. Of course the foreign sentiment can be ascertained fully at Honolulu, but the natives of the other islands may have very different views from the Kanakas of Honolulu.

"I am ignorant of the Hawaiian language, but with a trustworthy interpreter it ought not to be difficult to get at the real sentiment of the natives. What the additional instructions from Washington may contain remains to be seen. No question in recent American politics so sadly needs the light of pure truth thrown upon it as this Hawaiian question, for it has been muddled by appeals to sentiment and prejudice."

Mr. Blount thought that two months would suffice, although he said he should not sacrifice thoroughness to haste. When told that the voyage would take eight days he smiled and said drily, "It's an important question whether we want any territory that it takes a steamer more than a week to reach. That is mighty far away, in my estimation."

KAIULANI'S FAREWELL.

The Princess Seems to Be an Expert at Jollying People Up.

NEW YORK, March 22.—Princess Victoria Kaiulani has promulgated her farewell address to the American people. It reads as follows:

"To the American People:

"Before I leave this land I want to thank all those whose kindness has made my visit such a happy one. Not only the hundreds of hands I have clasped, nor the kind smiles I have seen, but the written words of sympathy that have been sent to me from so many homes have made me feel that whatever happens to me I shall never be a stranger to you again.

"It was to the American people I spoke, and they heard me, as I knew they would; and now God bless you for it, from the beautiful home where your fair first lady reigns to the dear crippled boy who sent me his loving letter and prayer. "KAIULANI."

The princess will sail for England Wednesday.

THREE MORE CONVICTIONS.

Charles De Lesseps, Baihut and Blondin Found Guilty—Six Acquittals.

PARIS, March 22.—Charles De Lesseps, accused of corrupting ex-minister of public works Baihut to support the Panama lottery bonds bill, has just been found guilty by the jury. Baihut, who confessed his guilt in open court, has also been found guilty, and Blondin, who acted as go-between in the bribery of Baihut has also been found guilty.

All the other defendants are acquitted. These are Marcus Fountane, Panama canal director; M. San-Leroy, ex-deputy, who was accused of changing his vote in committee on the Panama bill as the result of bribery; Senator Berell, accused of being bribed by Baron Reinach, and deputies Dugue, Gobron and Antonine Provst, who were accused of corruption. The jury was out about an hour.

A SEAL POACHER.

The Steamer Alexander Is Going to Play a Desperate Skin Game.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 22.—Advices just received from Behring sea show that the steamer Alexander, which left here early this year, is already in the forbidden waters. This steamer cleared from San Francisco for Hakodate, Japan, January 25. She carried a full sealing outfit, and another suspicious circumstances was that she carried eighty men. At the last moment several cases of Winchesters and cartridges were secretly put aboard. It is believed here that the Alexander will trade liquor for skins along the shores of Behring sea, and that before the patrol fleet starts north she will make a dash for the rookeries, overpower the small guard, and then slip south with a full cargo of skins.

FOR CONTEMPT.

Ann Arbor Engineers Before the U. S. Court.

The Most Intense Interest Evinced in the Proceedings.

The Decision of Judge Ricks Regarded as of Extraordinary Interest—The Railroad Officials Seem to Be at a Loss to Understand the Situation.

TOLEDO, O., March 22.—Judge Ricks, of the United States circuit court, arrived here Tuesday afternoon from Cleveland, and at 3 o'clock opened the examination of the Lake Shore engineers, who are charged with contempt of the order issued by him a week ago last Saturday. The court-room was crowded with lawyers and railroad men, and most intense interest was evinced in the proceeeings. The most important of the five witnesses whose testimony was taken Tuesday afternoon was J. O. Berdeen, foreman of the Lake Shore round-house, who deposed that Judge Ricks' order was not read to the defendants until after they had resigned and had refused to handle freight from Ann Arbor. This was the point the defense had hoped to make in presenting its case, consequently Mr. Berdeen has not proven so satisfactory a witness for the complainants as they had hoped. The examination will be continued Wednesday morning.

The evidence thus far is very strong in sustaining the charge against the men. Several of the strikers Tuesday night admitted practically that things were going against them, but they propose to fight every point through the highest tribunals in the land. Some of the more hot-headed intimate now, in view of the forecast of the result of this case, that there will be serious trouble before they submit to the legalized death of the brotherhood, which their chiefs fear is inevitable.

NEW YORK, March 22.—The officials of the railroads here are as much puzzled as the men over the situation at Toledo and the action of Judge Ricks in prohibiting men from refusing to handle boycotted freight. It is conceded by the officers as well as the men that if Judge Ricks' opinion is upheld the present relations between labor and capital, as far at least as the railroads are concerned, will be revolutionized.

CHICAGO'S MAYOR

Opposes the City Pandering to Race Prejudices.

CHICAGO, March 22.—Mayor Washburn in a communication directed to the heads of city departments based on the order made by the city council Monday night, directing that the city hall be closed in commemoration of the birthday of Emperor William of Germany, makes the potent suggestion that the council continue to pander to race prejudices until the dead saints and heroes of all nationalities, as well as all reigning monarchs have a day set apart in their honor, and that a few remaining days be set apart to American heroes. His honor practically nullifies the order by instructing city employes to carefully observe the order by closing their departments to transaction of business, excepting routine business.

Stanley's Statement Denied.

LISBON, March 22.—A representative of the Portuguese colonial office, denies that the Portuguese prov ince of Angol on the west coast of Africa, offers protection to slave dealers, as Stanley charges in his report. He claims that the geographical position of the province would not permit such double-dealing to be practiced. The official says that the Arabs are well adapted to the manufacture of powder, and that the country was full of breech-loaders, fire-arms and ammunition before the Brussels conference was enacted.

Badly Injured by a Burglar.

SEDALIA, MO., March 22.—Miss Ermine Alexander, of this city, on awakening Tuesday morning found a masked man leaning over her bed. He grabbed her and she screamed. The burglar attempted to choke her and a terrible struggle followed. Hearing footsteps approaching the burglar pulled out a knife and inflicted a great gash in her face and breast and then made his escape. The girl is badly injured, but may recover.

Burglar Shot to Death.

STROUDSBURG, Pa., March 22.—Hiram Kistler, proprietor of a general store here, was awakened by the ringing of his burglar alarm Monday night. He seized his revolver and seeing a man taking goods from the store fired and killed the robber. The latter's two companions ran away and escaped. The dead man is not known and there is nothing to lead to his identity.

Quarreled Over Cards.

PARKERSBURG, W. Va., March 22.—Crode Kidder, living at Reader, Wetzel county, is lying at the point of death from a terrible beating given him by Jacob Yost, at whose home the two men played a game of cards. After they had played a game or two Yost pitched upon Kidder, and knocking him down, beat his head almost to a jelly.

American Express Victory.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., March 22.—The American Express Co. has secured exclusive rights over the Illinois Central railroad to New Orleans, replacing the Southern Express Co. from Cairo southward, and will assume control on the first of April.

They Have Sighted America.

HAVANA, March 22.—The two Columbus caravals, the Pinta and Nina, arrived Tuesday under the escort of the two United States warships, Newark and Bennington, on their way to take part in the great Columbus naval review.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

What is Being Done at the Capital of the Nation.

The president Tuesday granted his first pardon to Lee Roberts, convicted of cruelty to seamen and sentenced January 30 last to three months' imprisonment in the jail at Baltimore. Roberts is nearly blind.

Mr. Josiah Quincy was duly installed as assistant secretary of state Tuesday afternoon. He secured his commission from the president and the oath of office was administered to him by Mr. Harry G. Bryan, who, in addition to his other offices, is a notary public.

Mavroyeni Bey, the Turkish minister, had an interview with the secretary Tuesday on the complaints made to the government on outrages perpetrated by Turkish officials on American missionaries, but more particularly to deny the allegation that American officials or citizens has been tampered with by Turkish officials. He said he would refer the matter to his home government and was confident the charges would be disposed of.

The president will send to the senate the name of Gen. Raume's successor as commissioner of pensions within the next ten days. All the candidates for the office are old soldiers. These are Gen. A. F. Rice, of Ohio; Col. A. V. Maish, ex-congressman from the Pennsylvania district; Gen. Wheeler, of Michigan; Col. Busey, of Illinois; Gen. Isaac S. Catlin, of Brooklyn, and Col. W. R. McLean, of Indiana, who was deputy commissioner under Mr. Cleveland's former administration. It is believed that the fight lies between Gen. Catlin and Gen. Wheeler, with the chances slightly in favor of the Brooklynite.

Chief Engineer B. C. Young has been ordered to temporary duty in the storehouse at the navy yard, New York port.

Assistant Engineer W. S. Bayley has been detached from duty at the navy yard, New York and ordered to Atlanta.

STANDING IN THE MUD

Was the Corpse, While the Undertaker Lay Near By, Dead.

PHILADELPHIA, March 22.—At Bridgeville, Del., Tuesday an unusual disaster occurred. Undertaker S. P. Short was driving the hearse containing the body of Isaac Riggin, colored. The hearse horse became unmanageable and the vehicle collided with a tree. Short was dasded to the ground and his neck broken.

The dead man was tossed out of the hearse, the coffin broken and the body stuck head first in a ditch. The colored mourners were so overcome by fright and superstition that they left Riggin's remains sticking in mud for half an hour. Then it and the dead body of the driver were placed in the hearse together and carried back to town.

Six Thousand Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—Fourth Assistant Postmaster-General Maxwell will take possession of his office on Thursday, and the work of beheading may be expected to begin. However it is said the postmaster-general told a southern congressman that the removal of fourth-class postmasters would probably not begin for three months. Six thousand resignations have been received, and appointments will be made to fill these and other natural vacancies before the work of removal begins.

A Gruesome Find.

ST JOSEPH, MO., March 22.—Compton Ayer, a farmer living a few miles south of this city, while hunting found five dead bodies in an advanced state of decomposition. They were the remains of four men and one woman. Appearances indicate that they were murdered. They are supposed to be the remains of a family of emigrants who disappeared very mysteriously last fall from Rule, Neb.

Pensions Are Being Issued.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—The statement that no certificates for pensions have been issued since March 4 is untrue. The issue is going on as usual and the signature of the secretary of the interior is being affixed, with his consent, by Gen. Bussey, who had pension matters in charge all through the administration of Secretary Noble.

The night clerk at this hosterly is very anxious to play in this drama the realistic part he is now enacting as a hotel employe He claims that the public demands realism nowadays, and that a real hotel clerk is as essential to the success of 'In Old Kentucky' as are real burglars to 'The Stowaway.'"

LIKE DYNAMITE.

Flour Dust Exploded by a Locomotive Spark.

An Immense Flour Mill is Blown Out of Existence.

An Explosion Which Shook All Litchfield, Ill., and Surrounding Country—Buildings Wrecked and Damaged About the Town—Thousands Are Lost.

LITCHFIELD, Ill., March 22.—At 3:30 Tuesday morning fire was discovered in the big Keeler flouring mill, in this place, and despite the efforts of the employes, it quickly spread throughout the building. In less than twenty minutes the flames were beyond control. While the employes and firemen were fighting the flames a terrific explosion, caused by flour dust, occurred, and the immense structure was blow to fragments.

John Cowie, the head millwright, living at Waterloo, N. Y., was instantly killed, and several employes were seriously injured. The explosion wrecked nearly every business place in the village. Many persons were badly hurt by flying bricks and falling timbers. The damage to the mill alone will reach $1,000,000, and other property was damaged over $150,000.

The shock was felt in the adjoining villages of Clyde, Butler, Gillespie and Hillsboro. In many of these places the concussion was so great that plate-glass windows were broken. When the fire started the citizens were awakened by the ringing of fire bells, and before many of them could dress they were stunned by the terrific shock of the explosion and the next moment found the walls of their homes falling upon them. The fire is supposed to have originated by a spark from a passing locomotive falling in one of the dust rooms.

Those already known to be badly injured by flying glass and timber are:

Mrs. Reichode, Mrs. P. Lynch, John Donohue, Joseph Neuther and John Kaveney.

Their injuries are severe, but will not prove fatal.

The fire was discovered by the night watchman in the branroom of the flour mill. He ran to a hydrant, but the water pipes did not work properly, and in an instant the flames spread to adjoining rooms. In less than two minutes the flames reached the flour rolling room, and the explosion of flour dust followed.

The night watchman was hurled through a window and badly injured. Millwright Cowie was stunned by the shock, and, unable to escape, he was burned to death. The immense building tottered for a second, and fell in a heap of blazing timbers.

The flames leaped across a small passage-way and ignited two large grain elevators. In the elevators were stored 20,000 barrels of flour and 200,000 bushels of wheat. The firemen were driven back by the intense heat, and in less than half an hour the elevators and their contents were a total loss.

Several small buildings adjacent to the elevators were burned. The shock of the explosion was heard twenty-five miles away and window-glass was broken and chimneys blown down in towns ten miles distant.

Nearly every house in a radius of two blocks from the mill was badly wrecked. All the plate glass in the stores on Main and State streets were blown out.

The flour mills and elevators were owned by Kehlor Bros., of St. Louis.

About forty small dwelling houses were wrecked and many others slightly damaged. The Wabash railroad tracks run between the flour mill and elevators, and are covered with debris for a distance of three hundred feet.

THE PRESIDENT BUSY.

He and His Private Secretary Sitting Up Until After Midnight.

WASHINGTON, March 22.—President Cleveland has been sitting up until midnight ever since he came into office, disposing of the immense amount of business which has accumulated at the White house since the 4th of March. Private Secretary Thurber has been sitting up until 2 o'clock in the morning and getting to work again at 8 o'clock. The mail which has been received at the white house since the 4th of March is something enormous. Every morning great stacks of letters lie on the desks of the clerks in the executive offices, and with each fresh delivery of mail they are renewed and increased. Most of these letters, of course, are from applicants for office. Of course there is the usual proportion of crank letters and begging letters, but most of the president's correspondents are seeking appointments.

Queen Victoria Takes a Trip.

LONDON, March 22.—Queen Victoria started from Portsmouth Tuesday morning on the royal yacht "Victoria and Albert" on her way to Italy, where she will spend the spring season at the Villa Palmieri, near Florence. Large crowds assembled to witness the departure of her majesty, who was heartily cheered as she went on board. The shipping in the harbor displayed flags, and the sailors cheered the "Queen Victoria and Albert" as the royal yacht passed out to sea, escorted by the British cruiser "Indefatigable" and the gunboat "Seagull."

In Pursuit of Dishonest State Officers.

OMAHA Neb., March 22.—At Lincoln the democratic and independent members of the legislature agreed to push the impeachment proceedings against the state officers smirched by the penitentiary and other jobs. A number of republicans will assist. This seems to insure the conviction of the officers charged with conniving and winking at jobbery.

Want to Succeed Colquitt.

ATLANTA, Ga., March 22.—Gov. Northen has announced that he will be in the race for Senator Colquitt's seat next year. It seems to be taken for granted that Colquitt will not seek re-election on account of poor health.
